Accepted the Call.

The call to the Railroad street Baptist church has been accepted by Rev. A. C. Hussey and he begins his labors Sunday, Oct. 2. Mr. Hussey has been pastor of the Roger Williams Baptist church at Providence, R. I., and previous to that engagement was at Northampton, Mass., for more than a dozen years. While in Northampton he did excellent work on the school board and is a man who keeps in close touch with all public affairs. He preached here two Sundays in August and made an excellent impression on the people and will be cordially received by parish and townspeople when he comes to take charge of the church.

The Y. M. C. A. Course.

This popular course for the season of 1898-99 will consist of eight entertainments, six of which have already been engaged. The concerts include the Salem Cadet Band with Henry Donlan, the boy soprano, and the Tremont Svendsen Company. Lectures will be given by Col. Copeland, a great platform favorite who is new to St. Johnsbury audiences, Frank R. Roberson and Rev. Russell H. Conwell. Mr. Roberson will give at illustrated lecture on the Philippines and is now at Manila securing pictures and Missions will be held in the North church data. Mr. Conwell will give his last and greatest lecture, "The Angel's Lily." A novel entertainment is promised in an evening with Macy, the New York humorist, and Soto Sunatoro, the noted Japanese necromancer and juggler. The course will open early in November.

At Howe Opera House.

The play which at present combines both elements and unanimously pronounced the favorite, is the universal verdict passed on "Town Topics," which will appear at Howe Opera House on Thursday, Sept. 29.

Bright wit and tuneful airs are what the people want, and they get it to the fullest extent in "Town Topics." The management has been careful in getting special scenery and properties and new music that guarantees to give a production perfect in every detail.

It is brim full of pure and jolly merri ment. You must laugh, you cannot help it. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Academy Notes.

There will be no school Thursday afternoon and Friday on account of the meet ing of the State Teachers' Association at Montpelier which the majority of the teachers are planning to attend.

Missionary Meeting at Peacham.

There is to be a district meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Union in Peacham, October 4. At this meeting it is expected that the president of the now until afternoon. While this has State Union, Mrs. W. J. Van Patten of Burlington will be present and also Miss Reitinger, a Bohemian missionary in Cleveland, who for the past nine years of Vermont. A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies from neighboring towns to be present and they are request released Saturday. His brother, who eluded the officers and went to New Hampshire, was secured through required to send their names to Mrs. H. P. Hooker, stating at which station, Barnet or Danville, they will arrive and upon what train they will come.

Today's Paper.

Our renders will find this week's CALE-DONIAN unusually rich in all that combines to make a first-class weekly paper, Besides the usual amount of local and county news there is some very in teresting miscellaneous articles. Miss Watson writes from old Nuremberg in a charming manner and the first instalment of the "Battle of Shiloh" will interest everyone who likes to read a story of a battle by a great word painter. A new department is added this week entitled "Live Foreign Notes," and under this head we shall publish the latest forign news condensed from many sources. Our news of the week, market reports and illustrated articles on phases of the war and current events will be continued and made more interesting if possible. The CALEDONIAN from now until 1899 will be better than ever. Legislature convenes next week and we shall have weekly letters from Montpelier by J. W. Sault, whose official connection with the legislature will bring him into close touch with men and measures. All departments will be kept up to the usual high standard and the CALEDONIAN will be sent to 1899 to any address for 25 cents and stopped at that time unless otherwise ordered.

Woman's Board of Missions.

The 26th annual meeting of the Vermont Branch of the Woman's Board of today. About 75 delegates from various parts of the state are in attendance and a reception was tendered them at the Museum last night. The address of welcome will be given this morning by Mrs. C. M. Stone and responses will be given by Mrs. W. J. Van Patten of Burlington, from the Woman's Home Missionary Union; Miss Kate G. Lamson of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, and Mrs. L. P. Leeds of Hanover, from the New Hampshire Branch of the W. B. M. Reports of officers will be followed by an address by Miss M. L. Torrey on the work, and the morning session closes with missionary addresses by Miss Martha J. Gleason of Constantinople and Mrs. M. S. Stimson of Micron-

At the afternoon session Mrs. G. G. Benedict of Burlington will contribute a memorial to Mrs. Emily R. Montgomery, Mrs. P. F. Hazen follows with a report of the junior work, and Miss Lamson o Boston gives an address entitled, "The Call to the Young:" The afternoon service closes with a missionary address by Mrs. S. H. Pettee of Okayama, Japan. Tonight there will be a public meeting at the North church with addresses by

Mrs. Petee and Miss Lamson.

Among the Churches. The ladies' society of the Free Baptist church will have a sociable at N. R. Switser's, 86 Eastern Avenue Friday, Sept. 30. Supper at 6 o'clock. You are invited.

Ernest Tinker has been chosen secretary of the North church Sunday school in place of Robert H. Smith who has entered college. Rally day was successfully observed by this school Sunday and several short addresses were made by members of the school.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Odd Fellows' block. Morning service 10.45, subject, "Are sin, disease and death real?" Sunday school after morning service. Wednesday testimonial meeting 7.30. All are welcome.

Worthless Checks.

Frank Lewis of Bethlehem, N. H., has been doing business in West Concord in a queer way by buying cattle and giving in pay checks when he had no deposit in the bank. He was arrested last week on complaint of R. Risley of Kirby, who held one of his checks. A bearing was held on Monday and he was placed under $500 bonds to appear at another hearing October 4. Bail was furnished. It is not likely that the local banks will lose by Lewis' transactions as he had not done a large business.

Sunset Home Lecture.

The first lecture in the Sunset Home course, "The Ministry of Books," was given by Rev. Thomas Tyrie last Friday evening. He spoke briefly of the effect of books on different people and of how they should be read and was very instructive and interesting. Owing to the unpleasant weather the audience was smaller than it otherwise would have been, and we trust the rest of the course may be better patronized.

Will Vacate the Certificate.

W. T. Thomas of Hardwick, who has been confined in jail some weeks, had a hearing in Bates, May & Simonds' law office Saturday afternoon before Chief Justice Ross. After some deliberation has been supported by the young people Judge Ross decided to vacate the certificate October 14. Notice was served on a hearing on the day the certificate is vacated. G. C. Trow and Taylor & Dutton were present for the plaintiff and S. J. Thomas and A. E. Wakefield, friends of the defendant, were also present.
